

I think it would be a crime to get rid of or modify the "No Call" guidelines. Since adding our home number to the list, we have been able to have uninterrupted meals with our family and no longer dread answering the phone when it rings. As our representatives, I feel you owe it to the public to protect our homes from the invasion of telemarketers.